SHORT AND SWEET

...that's how we like our honeymoons, according to a recent survey by LateRooms.com, which found that nowadays only 38% of couples take a two-week honeymoon compared with 80% in 2005. With one in five couples choosing a minimoon because of work pressures, we say it's time to reclaim the maximoon.

CHEERS TO THAT!

There's never been a better excuse to head across the channel to do that all-important taste test of champagne for your wedding. The region, in the northeast of France, has just achieved Unesco World Heritage Site status, so you can pass off a pre-wedding knees-up as an educational trip.
